

School of Continuing Studies

Part-Time Instructors Needed

Discipline/Field: Accounting, Finance, Economics

The York University School of Continuing Studies is home to a diverse community of ambitious, growth-minded individuals seeking to accelerate the change they want to make in themselves and the world. The School is the fastest growing in Canada, offering programs codesigned and delivered by senior industry leaders within established, high-demand, and emerging professional disciplines.

We harness the power of cohort learning to promote a strong sense of community in everything we do, encouraging peer-to-peer collaboration and growing the personal and professional networks of our students for years to come. We build resiliency by teaching specialized knowledge and technical skills, while simultaneously providing opportunities for enhancing soft skills, cultural understanding, and cross disciplinary know how.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMS

Designed to equip students with the valuable technical and soft skills that will help prepare them to pursue their CPA designation and further their careers. We offer two accounting certificates that cover all CPA approved topics and culminate in a capstone course that provides students with an opportunity to use the skills they've learned in real-world situations.

COURSE FORMATS

The full-time in-person courses are offered twice a week in three-hour blocks of instruction. The courses in the Advanced Certificate typically run in the evening, whereas the Foundations Certificate take place during the day.
